END OF AN ERA..?

Report to the Listener

Valerie van Isler, General Manager

What Are The Critical Issues for Election '92?
"Let the People Speak!"

This Presidential campaign has been one of the most extraordinary and unusual spectacles in the political history of the country.

We've been faced with months of speeches by a patrician, a plutocrat (twice), and a plebeian. We've been offered worlds of words by every spin doctor in the hemisphere. And we've had more polls, focus groups, and pulse-taking per minute than ever before. What does all of this amount to for the voter with a social conscience, a progressive agenda, and a vision of peace?

We ask again "What are the crucial issues before the U.S. electorate?" Gore Vidal says, "The most important thing to most people is the conversion from war to peace." There's a great deal of wisdom in that little pearl for a post-cold war world.

But, we at WBAI say, "Let the People Speak!" We sent an issues-survey to all our members some time ago. More than 400 of you responded, and here's what you think the real issues are.

The most important concern with the highest number of responses was for employment. This applied to the local, regional, and national economies. The second vital issue was health care, or the lack thereof, in all areas. Next was the environment. The fourth concern was education, in the fullest sense of the word—from children through the university system to worker re-training and life-long learning. Economic policies, both national and international, again reflect deep concerns about the state of the nation and the world. The sixth issue which you listed as a profound concern was racism—in all its forms—throughout society, culture, and the political life of this nation.

The rest of the issues in rank order were: foreign policy—now that the cold war is over, what is the role of the U.S. in world affairs?; reproductive and women's rights; the cities; electoral reform; and First Amendment rights, including freedom of the press in an era of Pentagon censorship and press pools. The drug problem, immigration, gay rights, and tax reform completed the member survey.

Day after day, you've heard coverage of just these issues on WBAI—on the WBAI Evening News and in the new Morning Show. You've heard our award-winning Public Affairs Department deal with them in daily programming and special reports.

We thank you very much for your thoughtful and honest responses; we expected no less from our very special members. Vote your conscience in November, but please vote. WBAI remains committed to the Pacifica tradition of independent journalism at the frontline of events and reporting at the cutting edge of news.

East Timor Revisited

by Amy Goodman

Amy Goodman, co-host of The Morning Show, witnessed the Timorese massacre along with journalist Allan Naim. They both were injured by the Indonesian army. Tune in on Thursday, November 12—the one year anniversary of the massacre—at 8:00AM for Goodman's documentary on East Timor.

Last month, in an unprecedented move, Congress voted to cutoff direct military assistance to Indonesia. They did this in response to the massacre last November in its occupied territory of East Timor, in which Indonesian soldiers opened fire on Timorese, killing more than 140 of them.

The military aid is called IMET—International Military Education and Training. It has been used to train more than 2,600 Indonesian officers since the invasion of East Timor in 1975.

The Indonesian government mounted a major lobbying effort in Congress to keep the aid, as did the U.S. State Department, the Pentagon, and multinational corporations such as General Electric and AT&T.

They lost.

Economic aid to Indonesia is now subject to Congressional review, meaning Congress can block it at any time during the year. Legislators from both the Democratic and Republican parties warned Indonesia that could happen if it continues its policy of killing, detention, and torture in East Timor.

The United Nations has never recognized Indonesia's 17 year occupation of East Timor, in which 200,000 people have been killed—one third of the population.

When the House first voted to cut all direct military assistance in June, many of the representatives who spoke, including New York Congressmembers Nita Lowey and Tom Downey, credited WBAI/Pacifica radio for drawing attention to East Timor.

From the Program Director

Andrew Phillips

Please keep those comments coming on our new morning program. We think it's working. How about you?

More about change. We begin a new lineup of programs following Natural Living that I believe will complement Gary Null's program and encourage an important and diverse audience to listen to our station in larger numbers. The spirit of these programs is one of searching for new horizons, self-improvement, expanding consciousness, and improving health. Armand DiMele, Wildman Steve Brill, Danah Geffen, Lydia Bragger, our Healthstyles collective, and Shelton Walden will now be heard from 1:00 to 2:00PM. Shelf Life, our live drama series, moves to 4:00-4:30PM; and at 3:00 on Mondays through Thursdays, we begin our new Afternoon Arts Magazine.

Stay tuned!

21ST ANNUAL WBAI HOLIDAY CRAFTS FAIR

December 4–6, 11–13, 18–20

3 Weekends–3 Major Events

Fridays 5–9 pm Saturdays & Sundays 11 am–6 pm

Ferris Booth Hall, Columbia University, 115th St. & Broadway, NYC

Admission: $6.00 per person, $4.00 Seniors

(Different craftspeople every weekend. Reduced-rate passes at the door for multiple visits)

Celebrating its 21st anniversary this year, the WBAI Crafts Fair is the longest-running and largest winter contemporary crafts event in the United States, with over 325 juried professional crafts artists from across the nation exhibiting and selling their work.

The WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair serves as the major annual fundraising event for WBAI-FM, so please . . . join us!

Doug Fagiana, the new executive director, promises "the fair will present the finest in contemporary American crafts."

He should know: Doug's an award winning textile artist who's been represented in nearly 200 exhibitions himself, as well as a curator and university instructor.

Come and have a great time.

Watch for great special events!

6:00 The WBAI News, including a review of the week's stories.

6:30 Ryan's (Only in) New York. Host Lee Ryan celebrates the Center of the Civilized World with the Usual Suspects: the lovely and talented Joyce West deals with theater, movies, and "stuff"; man-about-town Marie Becker covers the cabaret scene; Manya reviews and presents capital-M Music; dance reviews from Christopher Gillis, when he isn't touring with the Paul Taylor Company; and occasional dance and theater reviews ostensibly for kids from Zachary Lubin-West. Do not limit the above people to the above topics.

7:00 Outlooks. Vote! Vote! Gay Vote! Gay and Lesbian Independent Broadcasters (GLIB) will be discussing your gay vote and politics. So get off your tush and vote! Vote! Gay Vote!

8:00 Our Time of the Month presents Women in Comedy II. Feeling ignored? Comedienne Judith Sloan takes a look at the upcoming elections. We're ready to take your phone calls!

9:00 Emanations. Live radio with the Emanations collective—Michael G. Haskins, Ulysses T. Good, Tanya Steele, Theron Holmes-Clarke and Bernard White—focusing on the African American community.

11:00 The Creative Unity Collective Show. Don't miss this show! This is your last, repeat, absolute last chance to hear Creative Unity's usual enlightened, informed, principled, objective, and prudent character assassination of the three (assuming Perot doesn't front again by the time this goes to press) Presidential candidates! After this, we begin our enlightened, informed, principled, objective, and prudent character assassination of the President-elect, with some last toss-off digs at the (other) two losers. Also, C.U. makes its endorsement for the Ren & Stimpy ticket. Stereo, 2 hrs.

1:00 Carrier Wave with Sidney Smith.

3:00 Everything Old Is New Again. Music of the theater and more, with host David Kenney.

Monday 2

6:00 The Morning Show with Amy Goodman, Bernard White, and Jose Santiago. From 6:40 to 6:55AM, hear the weekly news magazine Cuba In Focus, produced by Zenzile Khoisan, Consuelo Corretjer, Sally O'Brien, and Rosemari Mealy.

9:00 Public Affairs Specials

9:30 The Bernie Fleshkin Show. Rock n' roll and comedy adventure.

Noon Natural Living. Health and nutrition issues with Gary Null.

1:00 Carletta Joy Walker...

2:00 Haitian Perspectives with J. Raynald Louis.

3:00 Afternoon Arts Magazine with literary mavens Brandon Judell and Carletta Joy Walker. Tune in as Larry Kramer discusses his latest play, The Destiny of Me, opines about where ACTUP now stands, and yells ein bissel about AIDS. Single, intelligent gay men who are interested in dating the activist should send letters of intro to Mr. Kramer, c/o the hosts. Also appearing will be Matthew Rothschild, publisher of The Progressive. He will discuss his article "Beyond the Lesser Evil: The Case Against Clinton" and try to convince people to vote for independent candidate Ron Daniels, an African American community organizer from Ohio who was one of the leaders of the National Rainbow Coalition. Host Judell, who never heard of Daniels, will be polite and not let on that he's voting for Clinton. And B.D. Wong reads from Gore Vidal's Live From Golgotha.

4:00 Shelf Life. WBAI's literary series presents Don's Party by David Williamson. Find out if the Labour Party will dislodge the Liberal-Country Party Coalition which had represented Australian Parliament for 20 years. Produced by ANZAA. [through Thursday, November 5]

7:00 Behind the News with Samori Marksman.

7:30 World View. Samori Marksman hosts this national satellite broadcast looking at international issues.

8:30 Circle of Red Nations. Native American news and issues with Raven.

9:00 Soundscapes: Explorations in Radio, Sound, and Music presents The Electronic Vote: Computer Fraud in Elections? The Electronic Vote is the first program of the multi-part documentary series, All Things Conspired: Conspiracy Theory and Political Culture in America, produced by Peter Schmideg and Tom Whelan. Voter fraud is endemic in many other cultures as both an accusation and, more often than not, a reality. Here in the States, it is dismissed out of hand as paranoia and conspiracy mongering. But, could it happen here? And would our computerized society leave no data trail, much less a paper one? Tonight's show will examine critically the possibility that it is happening here. We will focus on various approaches to the possibility of computer fraud in our political life. Joining us will be David Burnham, author of The Rise of the Computer State;

Griffin Moss, a London painter, and Sabine Strohem, a postage stamp designer living in the South Pacific, develop a relationship through exchanging richly illustrated, handwritten letters and postcards (neither have ever met or spoken to each other). The reader is drawn into Griffin and Sabine's love story by Nick Bantock's "interactive" book design: letters must actually be taken out of envelopes to be read. We'll speak with Bantock about creating a new form of novel that almost explodes the boundaries of the book, blurring the distinctions between reading and writing, dream and reality. The last volume of this trilogy is scheduled for release in September, 1993. Produced by Peter Schmideg and Tom Whelan.

3:30 Nightshift. Late night weirdness. Movies and America with Mike Sargent and Chris Taylor.

Thursday 5

7:00 The Gay Show continues to provide news, reviews, and interviews on the diversity within the gay/lesbian/bisexual metropolitan community. Larry, Allan, Bob, Marle, Andrew, Nina, Rick X, Kurt, and guests reflect our communal strength. Hear our voices.

8:00 Creative Women's Freeform Produced by Valecia Phillips.

9:00 Emanations. Live radio with the Emanations Collective—Michael G. Haskins, Ulysses T. Good, Tanya Steele, Theron Holmes-Clarke and Bernard White—focusing on the African American community.

11:00 Stolen Moments. Jazz with Mahmoud Ibrahim.

1:00 Back of the Book. Twenty-four years ago today your host first set foot in that bastion of liberty, integrity and honor, The Republic of Viet Nam. Expect comments: A) appropriate, B) otherwise. In a segment on rising unemployment Pussifica T. Catt interviews J. Danforth "Squeaky" Quayle III. They share a joint together and The Squeakster muses on what his daddy will buy him next. In a related story, George Shrub dons a cape and mask and declares that, beginning in January, he will henceforth be known as "The Prince of Dorkness." In this new job he will swap guns for hostages and protect powerful drug dealers. In a theatrical segment Pat Buchanan and Pat Robertson take their one act play "Two Pats From Under Some Rock" on the road. It recently won the Best Neo-Nazi Propaganda award from the Adolph Hitler Institute for Right Wing Crap. Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin.

8:30 Circle of Red Nations. Native American news and issues with Raven.

9:00 Soundscapes: Explorations in Radio, Sound, and Music presents The Best of Shortcuts. Tonight, producer Peter Bochan brings you a special "Birthday Shortcut." This month marks the 20th anniversary of Shortcuts, a series of programs which began in November 1972 as an angry reaction to Richard Nixon's re-election and developed into a new form of radio.

Mixing music with voices from the news and the street, press conferences, movie soundtracks, interviews, and sound effects, Shortcuts has presented a wide variety of themes over the past two decades, including shows on aging, loneliness, war and peace, space, nuclear meltdowns, the economy, South Africa, South Central, politics from Watergate to Contragate, and retrospectives featuring the major events and music of each passing year. So join us, for a well-deserved birthday bash! Executive Producer, Andrew Phillips.

1:30 Weaponry. The Sharp End, Part III. The analysis of infantry combat was dramatically altered by the extraordinary impact of World War II and the massive historical work that came out of it. One of the most controversial figures to influence infantry tactics and doctrine from the war was S.L.A. Marshall. His famous book, Men Against Fire, argued that fewer than 25% of infantrymen in a fire fight actually use their weapons. This controversial assertion has been hotly debated over the past few decades. Tonight, we will be joined by a number of people with different opinions on this topic, including David Hackworth, one of America's most decorated soldiers; Dr.Roger Spiller of the Combat Studies Institute; and Thomas McNaugher of the

1:00 A Weaponry Veteran's Day Special. Almost 28 million Americans are veterans of the Armed Forces. With a newly elected President in office, a fresh look at veteran policy is necessary.

Today, we will examine the plethora of issues revolving around veterans from a wide number of perspectives. Among the controversial subjects we will look at are the POW-MIA issue, veteran homelessness, incarceration, Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), and New York City policies towards veterans working as street vendors. Historians will join us to give a deeper perspective on these topics. Also, a discussion with African American World War II veterans who helped liberate Buchenwald. Produced by Tom Wisker and Jim Dingeman. [Part III of Lunacy by Tom Mitchelson will be aired by Shelf Life from 4:00 to 4:30PM as part of our day's coverage.]

1:30 Oblique Strategies. John Calvin Batchelor: An Interview and Reading. Writer of speculative fictions, John Calvin Batchelor talks with us this morning about his two latest novels, 'Gordon Liddy in My Muse' by Tommy 'Tip' Paine and 'Walking the Cat' by Tommy 'Tip' Paine. Through spy novelist, screenwriter, and raconteur Tommy 'Tip' Paine, Batchelor attempts to sort out the lies and delusions of the Cold War in search of some truths into the American national character. In the course of Paine's global travels as hack writer and wannabee spy, many of our convenient notions of morality come crashing to earth. We'll also talk with Batchelor about Watergate and Deep Throat, and find the answer to the most important question of all: Is John Calvin Batchelor G. Gordon Liddy's muse? Produced by Peter Schmideg and Tom Whelan.

9:00 Emanations. Live radio with the Emanations collective—Michael G. Haskins, Ulysses T. Good, Tanya Steele, Theron Holmes-Clarke and Bernard White—focusing on the African American community.

11:00 The Creative Unity Collective Show. Because of the unpredictable nature of our show, it becomes difficult to give any indication of what we'll be doing tonight. One thing I can most definitely assure you is that we won't be discussing Madonna. No plugs for her new book. No tracks from her new album. No tabloid-style gossip over who she's seeing or not seeing. No interviews with Sandra Bernhard over what caused the infamous "rift" between them. Nothing! Unlike the rest of the media, we will be Madonna-free and proud of it! We won't even be thinking of her big lying about dancing with the Alvin Ailey dance company ass! Stereo, 2 hrs.

2:00 An Afternoon Outing. Join Larry Gutenburg for a lively half-hour of information for the gay/lesbian/bisexual community. This November, we might even discuss the homophobic turkeys that seem to abound.

2:30 The Radio Works. Etiquette of the Undercast. Antenna Theater in Sausalito, California originally produced Etiquette as an experimental piece. Recently on display in the Smithsonian Institute, an elaborate maze was erected for people to enter. Each person was equipped with a walkman and asked to lie down on a slab in a huge drawer. As the drawer closed, in darkness, the soundtrack began; thus lying in a morgue drawer, each was born into the life of the homeless. Executive Producer, Sue Zizza.

3:00 Afternoon Arts Magazine, featuring Art Breaking with Charlie Finch.

4:00 Shelf Life. WBAI's literary series presents works by women. Produced by Malika Lee Whitney in association with the Literacy Education and Arts Resource Network (L.E.A.R.N.).

WBAI Celebrates 20th Anniversary of Peter Bochan's Shortcuts!

Shortcuts was created by award-winning producer Peter Bochan, a veteran of both public and commercial radio who can be heard regularly Monday mornings on All Mixed Up (9:30AM-noon). In 1981, Shortcuts received a grant from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) which allowed the series to be broadcast over National Public Radio. It also received the Gold Award in AudioArt for A Shortcut thru the '80s from the International Radio Festival in 1990.

Join us from November 23-26, for a look back at Shortcuts—from the very first show to a preview of the next A Shortcut thru 1992.

Cuba In Focus
Mondays, 6:40-6:55AM

The weekly newsmagazine presenting news and information about Cuba not generally heard in the corporate media. With the new world order widening the gap between the countries of the North and South, increased propaganda against Cuba fosters a climate conducive to heightened aggression by Washington's War Lords. Cuba in Focus attempts to balance the record. Produced by Zenzile Khoisan, Consuelo Corretjer, Sally O'Brien, and Rosemari Mealy.

8:00 A Moveable Feast. Contemporary American literature with host Tom Vitale. Tonight, Jenefer Shute reads from her first novel, Lifesize, and talks about anorexia, obsessions with body image, and society's expectations of women.

8:30 The Fourth Tower of Inverness. Whose Eyes Did the Dragon Have? Dr. Mazoola is chased by the dragon. Jack, once again inside the fourth tower, opens a door and finds a river. A ferryman, poling a raft, takes Jack into yet another strange land. A ZBS Production.

9:00 Home Fries. Live radio, comedy, music, and call-ins with Fred Herschkowitz.

10:30 Jazz Sampler with Bill Farrar.

Midnight The Midnight Ravers. The thematic exploration of connections between African, American, Jamaican, and Caribbean music with Terry Wilson, Dro, Ben Mapp, and Dred-Scott Keyes.

3:00 Lightshow with Frederick GeoBold, Brenda Black, Cathie Boruch, and Evan Ginzburg, editor and publisher of Wrestling Then and Now. At 4:30AM, hear Avenue X, the vampire radio drama.

Saturday 28

5:00 Hour of the Wolf. Science fiction and fantasy with Jim Freund.

7:00 As I Please with Simon Loekle.

8:30 Any Saturday. Live radio with David Rothenberg.

10:30 Lunchpail. Live radio with Paul Gorman.

Noon Disabled in Action Speaks! Are you a veteran or do you know someone who is? What are some of the issues facing veterans with disabilities today? Are there issues of particular concern to Vietnam Vets? Has the formation of veterans groups, such as Vietnam Veterans Against the War, helped to radicalize people with disabilities? Tune in as Disabled In Action Speaks! explores these and other issues.

9:00 Emanations. Live radio with the Emanations collective—Michael G. Haskins, Ulysses T. Good, Tanya Steele, Theron Holmes-Clarke and Bernard White—focusing on the African American community.

11:00 The Creative Unity Collective Show. What? Listen to the Creative Unity Collective Show? Naw, I'm... I'm goin' to bed. I'm... I'm tired. Done went and ate all this food on Thanksgiving. Got turkey and candied yams comin' out my ears I ate so much. Naw, that's all right. I know the revolution will not be televised after the Macy's parade or the Dallas game. I'm too full to be in no revolution. I can't even move right now. I'm... I'm just gon' sit here and hope I don't get taken down in the comin' whirlwind with all the rest of the powers that be. Wait up... we got sweet potato pie and vanilla ice cream for dessert? Okay... I'll listen, eat, and save myself. Stereo, 2hrs.

1:00 Carrier Wave with Sidney Smith.

Another Year, Another Block Party
Sunday, August 23, 1992

We pulled it off for the second year in a row! Bigger and better—a little better planned and very well attended. The WBAI Nuyorican Poets' Cafe's Block Party brought together a 12-hour, on-location broadcast with live music, street theater, street vendors, community organizations, and a whole lotta folk who came out to have a great time.

The day was clear, blue, and sunny; my thanks immeasurable go out to Allah for that. On the people power side, the WBAI staff, producers, and volunteers once again came through big time and on time. In the same breath we warmly thank and congratulate the Nuyorican Poets' Cafe for its ongoing cutting edge artistic accomplishments and efforts.

The Radio Broadcast never sounded so good! Gotham Sound pumped up the volume and it was slamin'; to Danny Giorlando and Martin Naclerio—gracias!

East 3rd Street was buzzin' with vending—food, crafts, and clothes. These people further diversified the jam. Thought I forgot you? Sure didn't: New Press, Fortune Society, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Rescued Estates, Disabled in Action, Jobs with Justice/Health Care Campaign, 6th Street Community Center, Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Lower East Side Needle Exchange, Comite Afirmacion Puertoriqueno, Deva Prem, Second Touch Fashions, Empire State College/Labor College (SUNY), and our home grown Bernard White selling stained glass. Once again, Thanx!

And the contributor I'm proudest of, mi hijo, Ismael, who stuck close by and gave me a hand throughout the summer. Hey—let's do it again next summer—you never know...

Morning Show Musings...

Dear J.A.B.,

The new Morning Show is wonderful! David and I are very particular about who comes into our living room (we threw our TV set out 15 years ago).

Now, we keep the new morning show on throughout the program. It is a pleasure to have you join us for breakfast tea, exercise and scones.

You three together make our early mornings flow.

You sound good...you "sense" good...and as a wonderful WBAI bonus...your mix is "politically correct."

Whoever got you all together as a unit was a genius!!

Thanks,
Arlene & David
Loyal WBAI members to the end
Kingston, NY

P.S. Congratulations Goodman/Nairn on your heroic East Timor victory! It was a David and Goliath miracle.

P.S.S. Our name for your program? The Wonderful New Morning Show

We are looking for a name for our new morning show. Please send your suggestions to: Morning Show, WBAI, 505 Eighth Ave., 19th Floor, New York, NY 10018.

WBAI is a 50,000 watt, listener-sponsored community radio station broadcasting to most of the metropolitan area of New York and New Jersey. The station is licensed to the Pacifica Foundation and broadcasts at a frequency of 99.5 MHz. Subscriptions are available at $50/year ($25/year student/senior), $2 of which underwrites the cost of one year's Folio subscription.
The WBAI Folio is published 11 times a year by Pacifica-WBAI Radio and is distributed to all subscribers. Second class postage paid in NY, NY. ISSN #0005-272. Postmaster: please send address changes to: WBAI Radio, 505 8th Ave., NY, NY 10018.
When drafting your will, please consider making a bequest to WBAI-Pacifica. For more information, write or call Valerie van Isler, Station Manager, WBAI-FM, 505 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10018, (212) 279-0707.

Classified ads...

may be placed by mail (WBAI, 505 Eighth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10018), by fax, by dropping them during business hours at the station, or by phone. Use the form on the back. You must attach a check (payable to WBAI) in the full amount, or your VISA or Mastercharge number; we cannot bill or accept other credit cards, such as American Express. The deadline for us to receive ads is always the tenth of the previous month: Nov. 10 for December, etc.... No exceptions can be made. We cannot guarantee placement of any ad at any time and retain the right to refuse any ad (refunding your money, of course) for any reason. The cost is $15 (the minimum) for the first 35 words and $ .50 for each additional word.

Your ad may be for any legal purpose. You may offer your services, sell your product, seek a lover, promote your organization or whatever. We strongly recommend personal ads use a P.O. box or similar (which we cannot provide). All ads will be formatted as below. The first few words are bold, and no other style is available.
